March 2011

President's Letter

March is here and the weather has finally gotten warmer. It may be inspiring you to do some spring house cleaning. This is a good time to take a look at your quilting supplies and clean out those items you don't think you'll ever use. The guild's spring auction is coming up in April and now is the time to donate items for it. There is an article elsewhere in the newsletter that will provide the details.

So far this year, we've had two interesting programs and workshops that have been fun. Please read the article on the March program and workshop and consider signing up for the workshop. You'll get some practice on a skill and have fun with the other workshop attendees. This is a great way to meet other guild members.

We also have two new bees that are open to any guild member. Bees are another great way to meet other quilters. The Loose Threads bee meets the second and fourth Friday afternoons of the month at QPS. The new appliqué bee meets the first Tuesday afternoon of the month at QPS. Speaking of QPS, please support this wonderful facility by bringing in your quilts for display and signing up to spend a few hours a month there.

Happy spring quilting, everyone!

Diane

Quilters' Public Square

BEES

The Friday Bee is now called "Loose Threads." We meet the second and fourth Fridays of each month between 1:30 PM and 3:30 PM. Come and meet new friends, sew, just chat, look at the collection of magazines, or pick up "loose threads."

The Tuesday Applique Group is meeting on the first Tuesday of the month. Come one! Come all! This is a way to meet and make new friends.

Shirley

Volunteers are always needed to staff QPS, so if you have a few hours, please consider this fulfilling activity. Remember, if each member volunteers only 2 days a year, we'd have full coverage.

We're changing out the display and are still in need of spring-looking quilts. Surely you have a quilt or two that you can spare for a month or two.

Thanks to the positive response received, Pat Rice will be starting another beginning quilter's class on April 5, 2011. If you're interested, or know someone who wants to learn, give Pat a call on 681-8662.

Community Service

The next Community Service Bee will be held at QPS on Tuesday, March 15th. We will open the doors at 9a.m. and close at 4p.m. You can come and leave as your schedule allows. You can bring your machine or just yourself. We have work for everyone and we have a wonderful goal: we want to make a large number of quilts to be ready to give away to the Children's Center and possibly CAPA at the end of March.

Right now we are especially focusing on Children and Infant's quilts. We have received so many contributions of wonderful fabric and I can't thank everyone enough for all of the help that we've received.

It's for a great cause and we have a great time! Looking forward to seeing you there!
